

Amy Lee Hancock

Compassionate Case Manager

(311) 555 0149

aleehancock@email.site.com

Pinswick St., Chicago, IL

Profile

Dedicated Case Manager with 10+ years of experience delivering high-quality care and case-management services to diverse patient groups. Instrumental in collaborating with cross-functional teams to meet the needs of patients. Adept at developing and implementing nursing care plans for patients and families.

Experience

2019 – Present | Case Manager
headspace National, Naarm

- Conducted case management and utilization review of 40+ patients to determine needs
- Created, reviewed, and revised robust care plans for 30+ patients, focusing on patient needs, disease management, and treatment alternatives

2016 – 2019 | Community Support Worker

Diamond Valley Community Support, Greensborough

- Managed all aspects of patient assessment, care planning, implementation, and evaluation to provide appropriate care
- Prepared documentation into database to ensure compliance with documentation requirements, maintaining an audit score of 95%+

2013 – 2016 | Civil Engineer

Fletchams Engineering Co.

- Designing and developing plans for commercial facilities
- Liaising with project managers on project progression
- Evaluating potential risks, materials and costs

Education

2013 – Lytcotsglade University Dayton, OH

B.S. Civil Engineering

2014 – Crimpenston College Chicago, IL

Professional Engineer License

Skills

Technical

- Case management, Clinical assessment, Crisis intervention Report writing, Trauma-informed practice, Counseling techniques,

Interpersonal skills

- Active listening, Collaboration, Cultural competence, Flexibility Community engagement, Empathy, Open-mindedness, Empowerment

Transferable skills

- Resilience, Conflict management, Computer Skills, Task and Time Management, Project Delivery

Certifications

Working With Children Check - Employee
Services Victoria

Victorian Drivers Licence
Vicroads